

Oh hey we didn't have an ACM this week...but I still had to take notes.

Rescheduling coffee with 12 strangers--Friday May 21 from 4-5 at Kafein. I love Kafein. You should go. And JBL will be there!

DILLO DAY ALERT: Is your bestie coming for Dillo Day? Do you plan on showing your hot hookup the wonders of CRC that weekend? You'd best tell Alcina and Justin their info before the 27th, or else it ain't gonna happen.

ATTENTION CRC KLEPTOMANIACS: RCB field day—we need a cart. ISRC says we stole theirs, so they stole it back. What really happened? The feral children at theirs. But still, “find” us one.

Do you like money? Give Sarah your receipts by reading week if you want to get reimbursed before Fall. SPEND YOUR SUITE MONEY.

Potential ideas: $50 worth of... kittenz. The DVD boxed set of Daria. Play Doh. Bacon. Pool everyone's suite money together to buy me a new computer so I can stop calling Dell and having to flirt with outsourced workers to get my programs to run.

Equipment: We got exercise mats! Don't do strange things to them...please. (Nolan, I'm looking at you) And they have a treadmill all picked out for us. Next year you will never have to leave the building.

Relay for Life: CRC raised 600 dollars! Woوو go them. I didn't want to walk around a track for 12 hours. I don't even think I could stay in SPAC for more than half an hour. I'm allergic to sweat. And effort. And that weird gym smell. Also, I can't figure out how to work those locks in the locker rooms.

Philanthropeeps are having a clothing drive from now until the end of the year. If you don't want to bring clothes home, give it to Connections for the Homeless! That pair of jeans never looked great on you anyway, right? There will be a box somewhere sometime. Put it in.

Academic: Sam's theater games fireside is on Thursday. Go learn how to be theater-y. We all know theater kids are crazy...maybe now we'll know why.

Social: There will soon be birthday munchies with cake and whatever.

Film festival: May 30th There will be Lou Malnati's and eating outside. RSVP now. After you wash your hands. Figure out what all these film kids do with their time.

Oh hey we didn't have an ACM this week...but I still had to take notes.

PS: Kittenwars.com. Do it.
